

Nature (p. 191) – Ralph Waldo Emerson

Finish these quotes from Emerson by reading the text. Then, tell what you think he is talking about in terms of the context surrounding the quote. Think like a transcendentalist.

1a.	"If the stars should appear one night in a thousand years,
1b.	Explain what he means by this?
2a.	"It is this which distinguishes the stick of timber of the woodcutter from the
2b.	Explain what he means by this?
3a.	"But none of them owns
3b.	Explain what he means by this?
4a.	"The sun illuminates only the eye of the man, but
4b.	Explain what he means by this?
5a.	"Nature is a setting that fits equally well
5b.	Explain what he means by this?
6a.	"For nature is not always tricked (dressed) in holiday attire, but the same scene
6b.	Explain what he means by this?
7a.	"Nature always wears
7b.	Explain what he means by this?