

Pronoun/Antecedent Agreement

Name:
Teacher:

Class:
Date:

Write the correct pronoun form in the left blank for each of the following sentences.

- _____ 1. Claude's sisters sailed (her / their / hers) sailboat out on the bay.
- _____ 2. Dogwoods and Azaleas are admired for (its / their / his) beautiful blossoms.
- _____ 3. Good divers must practice (his / their / his or her) routines daily.
- _____ 4. Before Rita consented to the operation, (she / he) was given time to decide.
- _____ 5. Although the plums were ripe, (it / they) tasted bitter.
- _____ 6. Will and Grace are known for (his or her / their) strange living situation.
- _____ 7. The museum will close (its / their) doors on April 1, 2000.
- _____ 8. Many people have attempted to answer (their / its) questions about the afterlife.
- _____ 9. We hope that you have enjoyed (our / us) show.
- _____ 10. Authors must try to capture (their / his or her) readers' interest.
- _____ 11. We continue to wonder about (our / its) world around us.
- _____ 12. The flying pig, though rarely seen, never misses (its / his / her) favorite show.
- _____ 13. Oysters and clams are becoming endangered because of oil spills near (its / their) breeding grounds.
- _____ 14. Pam or Cindy is going to take (her / its) car to the mechanic.
- _____ 15. Eastern Tennessee is full of caves, and often (it / they) contain bats.

Rewrite each sentence, correcting any pronoun errors. Just write "C" on the line if the sentence is correct.

1. Each man, woman, and child in this boat is going to need their lifejacket.

2. Neither of the boys in our group wrote their own sonnet.

3. Each of the girls wrote their own speech.

4. Several of my friends presented his work.

5. Everyone should attempt to write his own research paper.

6. No one should attempt to begin writing until they have done their outline.

7. Some of his songs are written as if they were written thirty years ago.

8. Almost all of the castle had their foundations ripped apart in the attack.
