Independent Novel Project:

Section 4 Assignment

Pls use your own paper with MLA heading at top left corner

(Name, Teacher Name, Class, Date)

Please number each question on your page.

1. In Section 1, you made a prediction about the meaning of the book's title. Were you right? Explain the meaning of the title.
2. Choose a character from your book and write a complete paragraph explaining how this character changes from the beginning to the end of the novel. If the character you choose is not the main character, please explain how he/she is connected to the main character.
3. Which character do you like the least? Why?
4. Now that you have completed the book, add the last panel of the storyboard (from Section 3).
5. Complete the one-pager for your book.

ONE-PAGER – What is it?

- Use blank paper
- All work must be completed on ONE SIDE of the paper. The only thing that should be on the back is your name.
- You must FILL THE ENTIRE PAGE with creative and colorful words and images. NO WHITE SPACE should remain.
- Artistic CREATIVITY is important! Use lots of color (unless you are purposely using black and white for a dramatic effect). NOTHING should be written in pencil.
- Write legibly!
- Use your best effort.
- NO BLANK SPACE

ONE-PAGER – What should be included?

Title or work and author's name (spelled correctly)
Border that reflects the text as a whole (consider words, pictures, symbols)
Dominant image/illustration that represents the text as a whole
ONE dominant word that expresses the tone and mood of the text (Consider how the text "feels")
(2) Quotes: Include two meaningful and notable quotes. Write them down anywhere on your page neatly. Use different colors and/or style of writing to individualize them.
Visual Images: Draw (3) or more separate visual images (characters, action, symbol, etc.) that represent the text.

Theme: A thematic statement for the text. (A theme is a complete sentence with a universal message. It is NOT one word)
