

Jonathan Edwards “Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God” Writing Assignment

Select one of the following assignments to complete after reading “Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God”.

1. Letter to Jonathan Edwards (2 pages minimum)
Imagine that you had been a member of the congregation on the morning that Edwards delivered his famous sermon. Write a personal yet formal response to the pastor stating your reactions to the sermon. Where did you agree with his points? Where did you disagree? Be sure to give at least three reasons and cite examples from the sermon. Remember, this is not to be written like a message to a friend; rather, it is a formal responsive letter. This is a creative writing assignment. The letter does not necessarily have to be your true personal view of the sermon.
2. Imagery in “Sinners...” (1 detailed picture + 1 page description)
If you would like to use your artistic abilities, you may create an image that Edwards presents in the sermon. Your picture should be in color, present your best artistic effort, and include the corresponding quote from the sermon. You must also provide a one page description of the image, how it relates to the sermon, and why it struck you as important. Evaluate Edwards’s use of imagery and its effectiveness.

Jonathan Edwards “Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God” Writing Assignment

Select one of the following assignments to complete after reading “Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God”.

1. Letter to Jonathan Edwards (2 pages minimum)
Imagine that you had been a member of the congregation on the morning that Edwards delivered his famous sermon. Write a personal yet formal response to the pastor stating your reactions to the sermon. Where did you agree with his points? Where did you disagree? Be sure to give at least three reasons and cite examples from the sermon. Remember, this is not to be written like a message to a friend; rather, it is a formal responsive letter. This is a creative writing assignment. The letter does not necessarily have to be your true personal view of the sermon.
2. Imagery in “Sinners...” (1 detailed picture + 1 page description)
If you would like to use your artistic abilities, you may create an image that Edwards presents in the sermon. Your picture should be in color, present your best artistic effort, and include the corresponding quote from the sermon. You must also provide a one page description of the image, how it relates to the sermon, and why it struck you as important. Evaluate Edwards’s use of imagery and its effectiveness.