

The Sky Tree Guided Questions (p. 35)

1. Would you describe Aataentsic's actions as heroic? Why/why not?
2. What is the Sky Tree and why is it important?
3. Why does Aataentsic cut down the Sky Tree? What does this action reveal about her relationship with her husband?
4. Which animal observes Aataentsic's fall?
5. What role does this animal assume?
6. What is the function of the old chief's dream?
7. What does this myth suggest about the importance that Native American's attribute to the knowledge gained from dreams?
8. What motivates Aataentsic to follow Sky Tree into the hole?
9. What does the role of the water animals in the creation of Earth say about Native American attitudes toward other creatures?

The Sky Tree Guided Questions (p. 35)

1. Would you describe Aataentsic's actions as heroic? Why?
2. What is the Sky Tree and why is it important?
3. Why does Aataentsic cut down the Sky Tree? What does this action reveal about her relationship with her husband?
4. Which animal observes Aataentsic's fall?
5. What role does this animal assume?
6. What is the function of the old chief's dream?
7. What does this myth suggest about the importance that Native American's attribute to knowledge gained from dreams?
8. What motivates Aataentsic to follow Sky Tree into the hole?
9. What does the role of the water animals in the creation of Earth say about Native American attitudes toward other creatures?

